

AFSCME LOCAL 2432

QUARTERLY UPDATE

WHAT WE HAVE BEEN UP TO

- PERC Update
- Employee Recognition
- AFSCME Picnic

We have spent part of our year collecting the new PERC forms. All forms that we received were submitted along with the rest of our certification paperwork to PERC. We are awaiting their decision/mitigation on our AFSCME status. To date we have 65% membership in our General bargaining unit, 60% membership in our Professional bargaining unit, and 68% membership in our Supervisory bargaining unit.

Highlight 1: Commissioner Elections

AFSCME did a joint endorsement with IAFF and FOP for Mayor Josh Levy at his kickoff event at Orangebrook Golf Course.

Highlight 2: Employee Highlights

Members of our Union were recognized and presented a Second Chance Coin by the City Commission for their heroic actions in saving the life of a visitor of Hollywood Beach.

Highlight 3: Diamond Service Award

The Diamond Service Award is the City's most prestigious individual employee award. The recipient of the award this year was Mickey Atelus. Mikey was nominated by colleagues for his exceptional ability to reflect the City's beauty in his video and cinematography productions, his outstanding customer service, and his magnetic personality! The nominees for this award were Barbara Armand, Edgar Cristo, Tina Doret, Melissa Edwards, Irish Gardner, Robert Ingram, and Shira Ridley-Risk.

Highlight 4: Team Diamond Award

The Effluent Pump and Pipe Failure Emergency Response Team from the Public Utilities Department, which include members of our Union, were recognized, and presented with the Team Diamond Award for their quick thinking, extreme efforts, and amazing teamwork to address a serious emergency at the wastewater plant!
